TCPD provides extra security at high school

THE COLONY, Texas — On Sunday, April 3, The Colony Police Department was made aware of a possible social media threat made against students at The Colony High School. An investigation into the allegations ensued and there was extra police presence at and around The Colony High School today, April 4.

The student who allegedly made the threat was not at school today. Rumors of a student being tackled in the school with a weapon were not true. There was a student transported by ambulance for unrelated issues. The school day for faculty and students operated like normal. The investigation remains ongoing.
